High and Dry Los Angeles Premiere!! @ The RedCat Theater @ Walt Disney Hall, 631 W. 2nd Street, Los Angeles, CA 5:30pm

The Los Angeles premiere of the rock documentary High And Dry is happening this Sunday, July 2nd at 5:30 PM! High And Dry is a feature length music documentary paying tribute to the influential and eclectic community of musicians that has emerged from Tucson, Arizona during the past 20 years. Through performances and interviews, the documentary captures the struggle of one small town's big music scene - where the desert meets rock and roll!

High and Dry will screen at the Don't Knock the Rock Film Festival on Sunday July 2nd, 2006 at 5:30pm at the Redcat Theater in the Walt Disney Concert Hall, 631 W. 2nd Street @ Hope St. in downtown LA.

Tickets are $10 and available now at www.redcat.org or call (213) 237-2800. There will be a short Q&A following the film. Check out www.redcat.org, www.dontknocktherock.com or www.highanddrymovie.com for more information, details and directions.
